INTRODUCTION

Therefore if there is any encouragement in Christ, if there is any consolation of love, if there is any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and compassion, make my joy complete by being of the same mind, maintaining the same love, united in spirit, intent on one purpose.

~Philippians 2:1-2 NASB

This fall we will be working our way through St. Paul's letter to the Philippians. This letter combines two things that we find difficult to reconcile, suffering and joy. Indeed, intense suffering and intense joy! This alone should be enough to pique our curiosity and make us want to investigate more.

How to Use the Study Guide

A word about how to use this study guide: The date at the top of each page notes the Sunday for the respective the week. The Scripture verse listed under each heading is a suggested memory verse for that week. Below that you will find a passage of Scripture, followed by "Reflection Questions". These readings will prepare you to hear the sermon for that upcoming week. Generally, there are readings for every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. However, from September 10th to September 30th, we are challenging everyone in the congregation to a daily (Monday through Saturday) time of "devotion and prayer". We are dubbing this our "21 Days of Prayer". The point of this is to work together on our daily discipline of pursuing God in Scripture and prayer.

To be clear, this is not intended to be a "legalistic" requirement. Not at all! Rather, it is a way for us as a congregation to walk together as we explore God's Word. And to what end? Our prayer and confident expectation is that as we grow in our understanding and practice of daily prayer and meditation, we will grow in the grace and knowledge of Christ and so grow in our love for Him and one another.

Simplicity of this Study Guide

This study guide is intended to be simple and basic. Each day's "lesson" should require no more than 15 minutes. At times this may annoy some, leaving you feeling that it is too pedantic. However, there are at least two reasons why this approach is necessary. First, we want everyone (whether novice or longstanding Christian) to be able to access this material. Anyone who wants to get more out of it certainly can by simply digging deeper. The second reason is that my goal is to get you pondering and praying through the book of Philippians. Simple prayer and meditation are basic; and the basics are always basic. It is so often in the fundamentals that we fail.

By all of us walking through this together, we can grow together. The experience of our corporate study of Philippians will enhance your personal study. Likewise, the reverse is true. Your personal study of Philippians will enhance our corporate engagement around this book. The weekly discipline that this study guide represents will be a tangible way that we can grow in allowing the “word of Christ [to] dwell among us richly” (Colossians 3:16).

A Word about Walking With Christ

Walking with Christ is a work that God is doing in you. This does not mean that we are not also required to do the work of walking with Him. Indeed we are! Paul repeatedly writes that we are to strive for the faith of the gospel (Philippians 1:27); we are to strive and sacrifice to know Christ (Philippians 3)! We do and must strive! Nonetheless, our confidence is that it is not dependent upon the perfection of our striving, but on the perfection of our Savior. Our striving does not secure his saving power. Actually, it is the exact opposite. His saving power secures our striving. He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion (Philippians 1:6). This is HIS promise!!! In light of this promise, we seek to do all that we can to work out the salvation he has accomplished for us, because we know that he is at work in us, working that which is pleasing to him (Philippians 2:12-13).

The way God completes His work is the same way He began it—by His Word. It is for this reason we are encouraging everyone at CRC to be in the Word of God personally. That is the point of this guide.

For the joy of Christ!
